

All counts are single-night linkages, not confirmed objects; short-arc orbital elements are not used for population inference.